

The Devil s Beatitudes

Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend 3 hours a week with fellow Christians – they are my best workers.

Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked – I can use them

Blessed are the touchy who stop going to worship – they are my missionaries.

Blessed are the troublemakers – they shall be called my children.

Blessed are the complainers – I'm all ears to them.

Blessed are those who are bored with the preacher's mannerisms and mistakes, for they get nothing out of his sermons.

Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church gatherings – for he is a part of the problem instead of the solution.

Blessed are those who gossip – for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.

Blessed are those who are easily offended – for they will soon get angry and quit.

Blessed are those who do not give their offering to carry on God's work – for they are my helpers.

Blessed is he who professes to love God but hates his brother and sister – for he shall be with me forever.

Blessed are you who, when you hear this, think it is about other people and not yourself – I've got you, too!!
